From the Commander

Sir Knights, Deacon Joseph Daniel Carl "Deacon Dan" of St. James Catholic Church in Concord passed away at home on Friday, February 12th. Deacon Dan has been a full time deacon at St. James since 1988. Most of us from St. James have had children or grandchildren baptized by Deacon Dan. Deacon Dan was a Third Degree member of St. James Council 7450 and was very involved with community services.

On Monday February 15th there will be a showing at 8:00 PM at St. James Church followed by a wake service at 8:30 PM. The Honor Guard has been requested and we should be at church at 7:30 PM. Sir Knights without Regalia should wear their tuxedo with Social Baldric and white gloves.

There will be a funeral service on Tuesday, February 16th at 11:00 AM. The Honor Guard should be there at 10:30 AM. Once again Sir Knights without Regalia should wear their tuxedo with Social Baldric and white gloves. Council 7450 members that would like to participate in honoring Deacon Dan can wear slacks and a Council shirt.

In this "Year of the Priest" by the Knights of Columbus we need to come together to honor Deacon Joseph Daniel Carl. Should anyone have further questions or needs, give me a call at 704/269-3183 or e-mail to afitzgerald1@carolina.rr.com

We should be actively recruiting Third Degree Knights for the Fall Exemplification that will be held in Charlotte on November 6th. This is a great opportunity for local knights to hold down their expense to get their Fourth Degree. Lets get the Form 4 filled out completely and turned into FC SK Ron Babbitt.

Mark you calendar for the March 13th St. Patrick's Day Parade in uptown Charlotte starting at 11:00 AM at the corner of North Tryon and 9th Street. The Festival starts at 10:00 Am on Tryon Street between 3rd and 1st streets.

Navigator's Notes

Sir Knights and readers, the Knights of Columbus has lost a very active Third Degree member in the passing of Brother Deacon Dan Carl. See the "From the Commander" Section above for additional details

The St. Patrick's Day Festival is on March 13th and is one of our fundraisers for the Assembly. We still need assistance in manning the ticket and refreshment booths between 3:00 and 5:00 PM. You must be 21 or older to man the refreshment booth. If you have questions or needs or would like to volunteer, contact me at 704/269-3183 or afitzgerald1@carolina.rr.com.

It has always been a phenomenon to some of us that some of the members of the Knights of Columbus that want the Assembly or Council to do something or give money to someone or a cause are the same members that never want to help bring income into the Assembly or Council.

We will have the election of new officers in May. If you would like to run for an office or to find out more about the duties of an office you can contact any of the Trustees or any current officer. The Trustees will present a Recommended Slate of Officers at the April 15th Business Meeting. Election will be at the May 20th Business Meeting.

The Joint Installation of Officers will be held on Saturday, June 13th after the 5:00 PM Mass at St. James with a Banquet to follow in the Parish Hall. Assembly 3158 is the host Assembly this year.

Our Business Meeting for February is February 18th at Gill Hall in Concord.

Yours in Christ and Patriotism,

SK Art Fitzgerald, FN
