From the Commander

Sir Knights,

After the rush of Honor Guard request for May and the first half of June things are slowing down for the summer. Listed below are two requests we have received:

Wednesday, June 23rd at St. Thomas Aquinas –
Special liturgy for the priest at 7:00 PM.

Sunday, July 18th at St. Patrick's Cathedral –
Mass for the Military at 3:00 PM.

Unfortunately, I will be out of town for both of the above activities. SK Johan Rief, the Commander of Assembly 780, will be in charge at both events.

I have been asked by our incoming Faithful Navigator SK Sal Cawa to continue as the Color Corp Commander for our Assembly.

SK Art Fitzgerald, CC

🕒 Navigator's Notes

Sir Knights and Readers,

We had the Joint Installation of New Officers for Assemblies 780 and 2208 from Charlotte, Assembly 2531 from Gastonia and our Assembly 3158 on Saturday, June 12th. We had the Installation in St. James Church conducted by our District Master SK Robert J. Grabasky and District Marshall SK Howard Brink. After the Installation we adjourned to the Parish Hall for a Happy Half Hour and Banquet.

This was the 14th Joint Installation and our biggest turnout. The food was great as was the fellowship. Assembly 780 in Charlotte will be the host for next years Joint Installation.

I would like to thank all the active Sir Knights of Assembly 3158 that have made my term as your initial Faithful Navigator very enjoyable. A special thank you to our Faithful Comptroller SK Ron Babbitt and our Editor of the best Assembly newsletter in North Carolina SK Terry Sippel.

Congratulations to our incoming Faithful Navigator SK Sal Cawa and the new officers that start on July 1st. Let's all give them our support and cooperation.

Unlike MacArthur I do not intend to just fade away. That is for those of you that remember.

Yours in Christ and Patriotism,
SK Art Fitzgerld, Retiring FN
